

The Jeffco DeAngelis Foundation Presents

Armed School Personnel

Enhanced Tactics

"The training was very thought provoking and intense in a good way. The tactics being taught have been well thought out and you can tell the tactics are based from real life experiences and are being taught as a way to save your life." - Former participant.

- Are you an armed school employee assigned with responding to critical incidents? This one-day training is led by nationally recognized leaders in law enforcement and school safety and designed for school personnel who have been authorized and assigned the additional duty and responsibility to guard, deter, and detect threats.
- The Jeffco-DeAngelis Foundation in partnership with CDSIP offers this dynamic and hands on training at no cost to members.
- Training to be held at The Frank DeAngelis Center for Community Safety. This one of a kind facility has been highlighted on Showtime and CBS News as the most realistic school training environment in the U.S.

When: September 26, 2020

Location: 6625 West 45th Place,
Wheat Ridge

Time: 8:00am-5:00pm

Cost: This training is fully sponsored by the Jeffco DeAngelis Foundation and is being provided at no cost to participants.

Class Size: Due to the tactical nature of this hands-on course, class size is limited to 21 participants. All current CDC guidelines will be adhered to. Participants will be symptom screened upon entry.

Meals: A variety of local restaurants are easily accessible from the training facility.

RSVP: Participants must pre-register at www.deangeliscenter.org

Registrations beyond the class size of 21 are waitlisted in the order received to fill openings in the event of any cancellations.